Adolescent Transition Program Toolkit

Helping you prepare for what comes next

PRESENTED BY

Welcome!

For a long time, Grandview Kids has witnessed the gap in support and resources that occurs when our clients transition from our care (as kids and adolescents) to adult care. Adolescents and their caregivers consistently tell us it feels like “falling off a cliff” when their paediatric support system is no longer accessible. Grandview Kids knew we had to bridge this gap, and help prepare families for the uncertainties that lay ahead.

The Grandview Kids Adolescent Transition Program - sponsored by TD Bank Group - supports clients (and their caregivers) who are transitioning into the adult health care system, starting when the adolescent is 15-years-old (Grade 10).

This toolkit serves as a roadmap. It can be used by youths on their own, or by their caregivers. The Toolkit reviews steps that adolescents must take as they transition to adult services. We also included other resources, which some clients and caregivers might find helpful throughout the transition process.

How to use this toolkit:

- The document is divided by age, indicating steps to be taken as the adolescent ages and transitions to adult services.
- Words in blue, underlined font link to websites for more information.
- Items with orange titles must be completed. These are the most important.
- Items with purple titles are highly suggested resources. These may not be applicable to everyone.
- Items with navy blue titles are all other resources, which may not be applicable to everyone.

If you have questions, please contact familyengagement@grandviewkids.ca.

Disclaimer: The information provided in this Toolkit is for reference only. It is not intended as a recommendation or endorsement of organizations, or a comprehensive resource list. Please consult with your own legal and medical team to determine what best suits your needs. Information may be outdated. It was last updated in September 2023.

Acknowledgements

Thanks to members of our interdisciplinary Steering Committee (listed below) for their passion and expertise to help build the Grandview Kids Adolescent Transition Program. By harnessing a combination of personal and professional experiences, this program was co-designed to better meet the needs of the Grandview Kids community and beyond. We are hopeful that these tools inspire, empower and guide others on their journey from paediatric to adult services.

Apply for ACSD program

If you are a parent or guardian who is caring for a child (who is under age of 18) with a severe disability, you may be able to get financial support through the Assistance for Children with Severe Disabilities (ACSD) program. This program provides financial support for low-income and moderate-income families to cover some of the extra costs of caring for a child who has a severe disability.

Your eligibility and the amount of assistance you receive is based on a combination of factors: you household income, size of family, severity of your child's disability, extraordinary costs related to your child's disability, and more.

Location of support in Durham Region:

- Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services
 - Phone: 905-440-1030

Important: Many supporting documents are needed before you apply, such as proof of citizenship, SIN for you and partner (if applicable), Notice of Assessment, most recent Canada Child Benefit (all pages), and more.

Apply for Jordan's Principle and Inuit Child First Initiative

Jordan's Principle responds to the unmet needs of First Nation children, no matter where they live in Canada. Under Jordan's Principle, we can: inform families about the help available for their child and how to access it; coordinate access to products, services and supports; provide funding when it's needed to make sure products, services and supports are accessed without delay.

Age 12 and under

Apply for accessible parking permit

To utilize a designated accessible parking space, accessible parking permits are issued to a person with eligible health conditions that have been certified by your health practitioner. There are five (5) types of permits, which some requiring renewal every five (5) years. Only the person named on the permit can use an accessible parking space. Misuse of the parking permit can lead to a fine up to $5,000, and the vehicle can be seized.

You can apply online, by mail or in-person. Click here to apply for an accessible parking permit.

Location of support(s) in Durham Region:

- If applying by mail, send photocopies of your identity documents to:
ServiceOntario Accessible Parking Permit Services Office (Address: P.O. Box 9800, Kingston ON, K7L 5N8).
- If applying in-person, go to ServiceOntario locations (find your closest one)

Important to note: There are two parts of the application: (1) to be completed by the customer; (2) to be completed by the healthcare practitioner.

Age 12 to 13

Request psychological assessment (or letter if adolescent is untestable) from psychologist*

A psychological assessment is often completed at school because it helps determine the best classroom placement (small classroom placement vs. integrated), need for extra supports, and learning strategies.

This is done usually for a child/youth who has been diagnosed with a learning disability or cognitive impairment. The student is referred by the school, and it usually starts with a school team meeting, which may consist of the child, parent(s), teacher and principal.

A psychological assessment may involve classroom observation, interviews with school staff, parent(s) or guardian(s), a review of developmental and academic history, rating scales (e.g., behaviour, social and emotional functioning attention, adaptive functioning), and the administration of standardized psychological and academic tests.

Psychologists at SickKids: Some departments have an in-house psychologist. If you are connected to SickKids already, you can inquire with your doctor. Inquire at The Hospital for Sick Children at 555 University Avenue Toronto, Ontario Canada M5G 1X8 or by phone: 1-416-813-1500.

Age 12 to 13

Identify /connect with adult primary care provider

If your child/youth is currently seeing a paediatrician, it is good to start looking for an adult primary care provider for after the youth turns 18-years-old. Adult primary care providers can be a family physician or a nurse practitioner; they are responsible looking after non-emergent health concerns. Look for a family physician who is accepting new patients and speaks your language.

Review transition tasks with care team/family

Connect with members of the youth's care team to start talking about the transition to adult services. Share your/the youth's questions, concerns, worries and goals.

The Grandview Kids Family Engagement Team is able to provide support via 1:1 and group mentoring, as well as educational seminars for both youths and their caregivers, through its Adolescent Transition Program. If the adolescent is still a client of Grandview Kids, their clinical and medical teams can provide further support.

Important: The youth should be involved in the planning process. As much as possible, decisions about their care and services should be driven by their needs, preferences, interests and strengths.

Discuss goals and priorities for future planning, including care goals

A transition planning goal is something that will support the youth in ways that help them live in the community, maintaining and strengthening the young person's connections with parents, siblings and relatives, foster families and any other individuals who are important to the person, as well as connections with their community, culture and religion.

Annual transition planning meeting with care team/family

Transition planning for youths with developmental and physical disabilities can be complex. It is important to have an annual (once a year) transition planning meeting with the youth's care team and family to make sure you are on track.

Connect with members of the care team to talk about the transition to adult services. Share your questions, concerns, worries and goals. The Grandview Kids Family Engagement Team is able to provide support via 1:1 and group mentoring, as well as educational seminars for both youths and their caregivers, through its Adolescent Transition Program. If the adolescent is still a client of Grandview Kids, their clinical and medical teams can provide further support.

You may need to meet with your paediatrician if the youth has long-term medical/health issues.

Important: The youth should be involved in the planning process. As much as possible, decisions about their care and services should be driven by their needs, preferences, interests and strengths.

Begin Developmental Services Ontario (DSO) application (submit at age 16)

Developmental Services Ontario (DSO) is the access point for adult developmental services, funded by the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services (MCCSS) in Ontario. There are nine DSO locations in Ontario.

At age 18, children's developmental services end, including Special Services at Home and the Ontario Autism Program. This means that the youth (or parent/guardian) must apply through DSO to see if they are eligible to receive adult MCCSS-funded supports.

A psychological assessment is required to apply for DSO. You can apply online to DSO online or at your DSO office (DSO Central East Region).

Important: Not all applicants will receive DSO. There are two parts to this application: (1) application form; (2) an interview (when you receive an acceptance letter, you will be brought in for an extended interview, which can range from three to seven hours with the DSO representative).

Apply for bank card

Teaching children and youths how to manage money will help them throughout their lives. It is a way to prepare them for the future so that they learn how to make good decisions on spending, understand wants versus needs, and how to save and plan for the future.

Learn about Substitute Decision-Makers (SDM)

A Substitute Decision Maker (SDM) is a person who makes decisions for someone who is not capable of doing it on their own. An SDM is responsible for decisions that may affect the person's health and finances.

In instances when someone does not wish to take on the role of an SDM, or finds themselves unable to continue as a SDM, a Home and Community Care Support Services Care Coordinator will turn to the next highest-ranking individual who meets the requirements to act as SDM, in accordance with the law.

For more information, review "A Guide to the Substitute Decision Act" from the Ontario government Office of the Public Guardian and Trustee.

Learn how to use public transit

Specialized Services provided by Durham Region Transit (DRT) can be helpful for individuals who use local transportation to attend day programs, recreation, school or volunteer/job opportunities.

To be considered for Specialized Services, the "Specialized Services Application and Information Package Application" must be fully completed and submitted to the DRT Eligibility Office.

Applicants may be required to attend an in-person interview or assessment at the Specialized Services office, which is located at 110 Westney Road South in Ajax. Integrated service, or the Family of Services approach to delivering public transit, delivers trips using more than one accessible vehicle.

You may need to meet with your paediatrician if the youth has long-term medical/health issues.

Important: The youth should be involved in the planning process. As much as possible, decisions about their care and services should be driven by their needs, preferences, interests and strengths.

Age 16

Discuss referral to adult specialists with paediatric specialists

Ask the youth's paediatric specialist(s) to refer them to adult specialists. Start these referrals at age 16, considering waitlists for some specialists.

File a personal tax return for the youth (for previous year)

Most people who earn income pay tax on that income. Governments use that money to provide services and infrastructure to the public.

Every year, you must fill out an Income Tax and Benefit Return Form and send it to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). You can file income tax in-person or electronically using a certified software package.

Ensure appointment(s) with paediatric specialists to transfer care

Ask the youth's paediatric specialist(s) to refer them to adult specialists. Start these referrals at age 16, considering waitlists for some specialists.

Age 17

Submit Ontario Disability Support Program (ODSP) application at age 17.5

The Ontario Disability Support Program (ODSP) provides income support for those with disabilities in Ontario. The application is time-sensitive.

ODSP offers:

- Income support to help you (the client) with monthly living expenses.
- Benefits for you (the client), including prescription drugs and vision care.
- Employment supports to help you find and keep a job, or advance your career.

There are three steps to applying for ODSP Employment Supports:

1. Complete the Supports Application Package.
2. You may need to verify your disability, and this is dependent on whether you qualified under DSO, are already receiving ODSP Income Support, are registered as legally blind with the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, or have attended a provincial school for students with disabilities. You will need to get the Verification of Disability/Impairment Form. It will be in your application package.
3. Send your completed application package to your local ODSP office, where staff will review your application and tell you next steps.

Tip: Ask about the “Mandatory Special Necessities (MSN) Form,” which provides additional support for incontinence supplies, transportation to medical appointments, diabetic supplies and more.

File a personal tax return for the youth (for previous year)

Most people who earn income pay tax on that income. Governments use that money to provide services and infrastructure to the public.

Every year, you must fill out an Income Tax and Benefit Return Form and send it to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). You can file income tax in-person or electronically using a certified software package.

For more information, visit the website www.canada.ca/en/services/taxes/income-tax/personal-income-tax.html.

Free tax clinics in Durham Region:

- Ontario Tech Free Tax Clinic (Services offered in-person or virtual)
 - Phone: 905-721-8668 x3780
- Durham Region (Local Tax Clinics)
 - Phone: 1-888-721-0622
- Local Diversity & Immigration Partnership Council
- Government of Canada Resources

Important to note: Filing personal income tax, even if you have no income, will help you with your Ontario Disability Support Program (ODSP) application.

Age 17

Develop a 'crisis plan' of youth's daily routine

This is a 'must-do' for those with complex (medical, etc.) needs. Minimum information to include:

- Youth's basic 24-hour care routine
- Any care providers that come during the day
- Name of family/friends who can help
- Local crisis resource contact
- Primary care practitioner/doctor contact and pharmacy contact

Transfer home care services

This is typically required for those with medical needs. Contact Care Coordinator at Home and Community Care Support Services (HCCSS). If you do not have a Care Coordinator, call 310-2222 (no area code) to request an assessment.

HCCSS provides access to Occupational Therapy, Physiotherapy and Social Work support on a consultative basis in adulthood (the only place to access these supports over age 18). Clients who are on home services can continue with services. The Care Coordinator helps with this transition, but a reassessment may be required at age 18.

Determine future respite needs

Respite support is for any caregiver of any person with a disability, whether that be exclusively physical, exclusively developmental, both, or complex medical needs. If you are a caregiver for someone with a health condition, disability or care needs associated with aging, you can take a break with help from respite providers.

The person you care for must – at a minimum – have:

- A valid Ontario health card (i.e. be covered by OHIP).
- A home properly equipped for the services needed (e.g., shower chairs, transfer benches, etc.).
- Depending on the service needed, there are other qualifications.

Age 17

Apply for Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) - if attending post-secondary school

As needed, based on individual needs. OSAP is a financial aid program that can help you pay for college or university. OSAP offers funding through:

- Grants: money you don't have to pay back
- Student loans: money you need to repay once you're done school

When you apply for OSAP, it automatically considers you for both grants and a loan. If you don't want to take a loan, and you're a full-time or part-time student, you can decline it after your application is approved.

Important to note: Before you begin your studies, you need to: (1) report the amount of social assistance you receive on your OSAP application; and (2) let your ODSP caseworker know how much OSAP you receive.

Apply for Canada Student Grant for Students with Permanent Disabilities

The Canada Student Grant for Students with Permanent Disabilities is available to students with disabilities for each year of study. You can apply at the same time as you apply for student aid with your province or territory. Please check if you are a student in a qualified program at a designated school (see list on website).

You could be eligible for this grant if you apply, and:

- Have a financial need.
- Are a student in a qualified program at a designated school.
- Are a student with a mental or physical disability, that restricts your ability to participate in post-secondary studies or the labour force, and is expected to stay with you for life, and include one of the following with your loan application as proof of your disability:
 - A medical certificate;
 - A psycho-educational assessment; or
 - Documents that prove you have received federal or provincial permanent disability assistance.

Age 17

Apply for Canada Student Grant for Services and Equipment for Students with Permanent Disabilities

If you need education-related services or equipment, apply for the Canada Student Grant for Services and Equipment for Students with Permanent Disabilities. You can apply at the same time as you apply for student aid with your province or territory. Please check if you are a student in a qualified program at a designated school (see list on website).

Important to note: You could be eligible for this grant if you apply, and:

- Have a financial need.
- Are a student in a qualified program at a designated school.
- Are a student with a permanent disability.
- Include as proof of your disability:
 - A psycho-educational assessment; or
 - Documents that show you have received federal or provincial permanent disability assistance;
 - Send written confirmation from a qualified person that you need education-related services or equipment; or
 - Send written confirmation of the cost of equipment and services.

Request prescription refill for medications and enteral formula for six months (if applicable)

As needed, ask paediatricians for a prescription at least for six months' worth of medications to carryover when the youth transitions to adult care.

Justin's story

Disability Tax Credit

The Disability Tax Credit \(DTC\) is a non-refundable tax credit used to reduce the amount of income tax payable for eligible individuals. To be eligible, a person must have a "severe and prolonged mental or physical impairment." A qualified practitioner must fill out the paperwork.

A caregiver may be able to claim all or part of a dependent's Disability Tax Credit, providing that both the caregiver and the dependent were residents of Canada during the tax year.

Important to note:

- Review eligibility criteria to determine if the youth qualifies.
- Review the list of qualified practitioners. Book an appointment with a 'qualified practitioner' to have them fill out the Disability Tax Credit Application.
- Download and print the 'Form T2201' for the qualified practitioner to fill out. Be sure to include any documentation about date of onset. If your youth had the disability in previous tax years, but you had not registered for DTC, you may be able to claim back money paid in taxes from these previous years.
- Send the original signed form to CRA. Sending your form before you file your annual income tax and benefit return may help us assess your return faster.

Last check-in with the paediatric team and family

Book a final appointment with your paediatric team. Request a final report from your doctors.

Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP)

A Registered Disability Savings Plan \(RDSP\) is a federal tax-supported savings approach that encourages people to save for the future needs of a person with a disability.

The Government may contribute Canada Disability Savings Grants of up to $3,500 a year, for up to 20 years, depending on the number of contributions made to the RDSP.

The Government may also pay a Canada Disability Savings Bond of up to $1,000 a year, for up to 20 years, into the RDSPs of low-income and modest-income Canadians. No contributions are necessary to receive the bond. Earnings accumulate tax-free until money is taken out of the RDSP. People with disabilities must be 49-years-old or younger to receive grants or bonds.

Important to note:

1. To be eligible for a RDSP, the youth needs to first qualify for the Disability Tax Credit.
2. Most banks provide RDSP programs. Ask your local branch for more information. You may want to ask for a staff member who has had previous experience setting up an RDSP. Consult with other parents and/or adults with disabilities to find a financial advisor or bank employee with knowledge about RDSPs.

*This can be completed anytime. Setting this up earlier will be helpful, even if youth may not reach retirement age. This allows families to access these funds penalty-free (e.g., for any equipment/home modifications, respite, etc.) for the youth/family if medical professional deems life expectancy to be limited.

Share paediatric care plan, last consultation note and relevant medical records with adult providers

Request full health file to be shared between paediatric and adult health care and clinical providers.

Age 18

Confirm appointments with Primary Care Providers (PCPs) and all adult care specialists

Depending on physician wait times to get an appointment, you may want to call early to schedule a visit.

Housing supports

Developmental Services Ontario (DSO) keeps a waiting list for those requiring housing supports. Applying and receiving DSO supports does not mean that the youth has been placed on a housing list. You must specifically request this through the DSO. It is important to keep them updated about your youth's situation as the list is based on need.

For more information, check out the DSO Housing Toolkit Website.

Henson's Trust

A Henson Trust, also known as a discretionary trust, is structured to protect the assets of a person living with a disability, as well as their right to collect government benefits and entitlements such as those from ODSP.

Henson Trusts are often used in the wills of caregivers and family who wish to leave an inheritance. One person can be the beneficiary of multiple Henson Trusts.

For more information, visit www.planningnetwork.ca/resources/henson-trust.

It is important not to name an ODSP recipient in life insurance as a beneficiary. Instead, this should also flow through the Henson trust.
